Other Business:

Fire Department – Ray Brown: No fire update.

Recreation Club – Brandon Farmer: Opening day for the Recreation Club will be April 24 from ten o’clock to three o’clock. There will be a vendor craft show along with Hocus Pocus Magic Show and proceeds will go to the Adams Recreation Club. The BBQ plates are pre-sale for $10 and will be picked up from eleven o’clock and two o’clock. Brandon said he thinks the kids are doing great and he is glad to see them playing this season. The new lawn mower, purchased by the City of Adams, is now being stored in the back section of the Blacksmith shop for easier access and is temporary. He is working on getting the scoreboards up and working. Brandon plans to get the sponsorship signs up, flag pole fixed, and ball field lights fixed on it as soon as he can. Brandon would like to find a home for the large tarp laying on the concrete pad by the fields. The recreation club is getting quotes for a building to be placed on the concrete pad at the field. Brandon mentioned the tree with three trunks at the ball field is a liability for people sitting on the bleachers and needs to be gone. Sherry Hall commended Brandon Farmer on his dedication to get the kids playing play this year.

Blacksmith Meetings – Last Sunday of the month and 2nd Sunday of the month.

Complaints – Sherry Hall

The resident of Adams would like to see pot holes filled, especially the ones on Keysburg Road. The resident would like something to be done about the house beside the Post Office on South Church Street because it reflects back on the City. Resident would like to know how to see the events and minutes on the City’s website. City Recorder and Mayor showed Mrs. Hall how to access the City’s website in order to see this information.

There being no further business, Vice Mayor Hall moved to adjourned. Commissioner Baird seconded the motion. Meeting adjourned at 7:49 pm.

Anna Luke, City Recorder

Robert Wayne Evans, Mayor
