

City Meeting February 12th, 2026

The Adams Board of Commissioners met in regular session, at 5:00 p.m. in the Bell School Board Room. Mayor Evans, Vice Mayor Megan Baird, and Commissioner Tyler Estep were present.

Open with A Prayer

The meeting was called to order, and Donovan Tucker led in prayer. Mayor Evans requested all in attendance to stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

City Council January Minutes

Minutes from January were presented. Evans asked if there were any additions or corrections. With no additions or corrections, the minutes were approved. Evans made a motion to approve; Estep seconded the motion. All in favor, none opposed. Passed 3-0.

Financials

The financials were presented for January. Evans asked if there were any additions or corrections. With no additions or corrections, the financials were approved. Estep made a motion to approve; Baird seconded the motion. All in favor, none opposed. Passed 3-0.

Old Business: None

New Business:

Ordinance No 2026-78 Budget Amendment

Estep made a motion to approve Ordinance No 2026-78 Budget Amendment. Baird seconded the motion. A roll call was made. Baird "Aye", Estep "Aye", Evans "Aye". Passed 3-0

Public Comments:

Candy Hooten was present and asked for the commission to give permission to allow paranormal investigations on the Bell School grounds once a month. There would be a charge for people to participate, and the Bell Witch Cave allotted 7 hours for hosting an investigation is from 7pm-1am, yet the city can decide on how many hours to approve for an investigation. Mayor Evans stated that he would like to meet with the group that does paranormal investigations and would address it at another meeting.

Candy Hooten also asked about the process of adding rental cabins on her property. City Manager Anna Redfern told her that the planning and zoning committee reviews plat applications and she would look to see what her property is zoned for.

Recreation Club: None

Fire Department:

Reports From Staff:

1. City Manager Anna Redfern stated that the stormwater drainage project would start around next week. Also, the replacement of the museum and pavilion roofs should start in a few weeks as well.

There being no further business, Evans made a motion to adjourn. Estep seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 5:10pm.

Leslie Phelps, City Recorder

Robert Wayne Evans, Mayor