Public Comments:

Jared Reed of 105 South Adams Street was present and stated that he would like to make his culvert wider and needs 4-6 feet of pipe. Mayor Evans recommended that a professional needs to do the work and that he would like to look at the culvert before work is done.

Mary Mantooth was present and asked Megan Baird if she was going to have vendors in the gym for Christmas this year. Megan said that she did plan on having vendors again and stated last year was a success.

Recreation Club:

City Manager Anna Redfern informed the commission that the Rec Club had over 150 signups and will not have an opening day due to spring break and season, may have one later.

Museum:

The Museum Board met today, and Estep stated that the board voted to pay for the painting of the museum building's roofs.

Fire Department:

Chief Donovan Tucker was present. Donovan stated that he would like to go ahead and purchase the raft boat that was previously approved in June due to the price increase.

The Tanker will also be needing new tires but should be able to wait until the next fiscal year.

There are three new volunteers that will be needing turnout gear. Mayor Evans suggested for Donovan to get a quote for the turnout gear.

Evans made a motion to approve the purchase of the raft boat. Baird seconded the motion. A roll call was made. Baird "Aye", Estep "Aye", Evans "Aye". Passed 3-0.

Reports From Staff:

City Manager Anna Redfern stated that the pavilion roof is completed and Kirby will be sweeping the ground for nails. Kirby will be starting on the Bell Cabin within the next couple of weeks. Kirby will also be looking at the Fire Hall roof because it is leaking.

City Manager Anna Redfern stated that she made a $50,000 transfer to LGIP from General Fund.
